

Paula Wendorf

LPGA Certified Teaching
Professional

Paula has over 10 years of teaching and coaching experience with new golfers to advanced players. Her teaching philosophy derives around demonstrating the basic fundamentals first including: grip, stance, posture and alignment and building a swing or fixing errors based on those fundamentals. Paula is a certified Jim McLean instructor, ranked the number one best golf school in the world and an accomplished player herself. She is in the Golf Hall of Fame at Central Catholic High School winning 2 State titles and is the only University of Oregon Hall of Fame Women's Golfer. She has played on a professional level as well. She qualified for the US Women's Open in 1999 and played locally in the LPGA Safeway Classic in 2006. Her passion lies in teaching.
